Event title	The 3rd Regional Professional Seminar "Civil Engineering and Transportation 2023, Belgrade, SRB
Event description:	The promotion of the DGTRANS project took place at the 3rd Regional Professional Seminar "Civil Engineering and Transportation 2023," held from May 31st to June 2nd, 2023. In addition to the wide range of topics covered at the seminar, there was also a dedicated presentation focusing on the DGTRANS project. During the seminar, the DGTRANS project was presented to the audience, highlighting its objectives, strategies, and anticipated impact. In short, the promotion of the DGTRANS project at the seminar provided an essential platform for raising awareness regarding the issue of transportation of dangerous goods. The audience was presented with the basic reasons and the lack of organization in the field of transportation of dangerous goods. Only through joint cooperation in this field is it possible to change the current situation and make this mode of transportation safer. The Almanah PUT Plus, a magazine introduced to the professional audience at this seminar, published an article about the DGTRANS project. The article in the Almanah PUT Plus provides further insights into the importance and expected outcomes of the DGTRANS project. The magazine gives a concise description of the main reasons for starting the project, the importance of the issue for WBC and European countries, as well as the main goals of the DGTRANS project (magazine photo below).
