Event title	Erasmus+ Day at the Faculty of Technical Sciences in Kosovska Mitrovica
Event description:
On October 15, 2025, Erasmus+ Day was held at the Faculty of Technical Sciences in Kosovska Mitrovica, bringing together students and staff of the University of Priština to celebrate and promote the achievements of the University's participation in Erasmus+ projects. During the event, students had the opportunity to learn more about the Erasmus+ program, its objectives, and the opportunities it offers for mobility, cooperation, and innovation in higher education. The event aimed to encourage student engagement in international projects and to highlight the importance of collaboration within the European Higher Education Area. All ongoing Erasmus+ projects in which the University of Priština in Kosovska Mitrovica is actively involved were presented, including DGTRANS. For each project, promotional materials were distributed, providing students with detailed information about project goals, activities, and potential opportunities for participation. Through presentations, discussions, and interactive sessions, Erasmus+ Day served as an excellent platform to promote the values of international cooperation and to showcase the University's growing presence in European educational and research networks.
